

Round 2

1. Players have to draw within their own divided sections and fold the part when done. The next player can not see the drawing.
2. The first player has to extend a certain number of lines outside of the grid as a reference for the next player.
3. The next player needs to add 1 more extended line based on the lines drawn by the former player.

